

TRAIL Still Water to White Water

Hugging the lake shoreline, this charming ride offers a nice balance of fairly easy to navigate mountain roads following the original Cherokee Warrior's Path, across Clinch Mountain, the Dixie Highway of the Civil War period and the Thunder Road of moonshine lore.

TRAIL INFO
MILES: 120
HOURS: 3.5

Jefferson Visitor Center

1 Carson Newman College has a beautiful campus to visit anytime of the year. Founded in 1851, it is a private four-year Christian liberal arts school, and continues to be ranked amongst the top colleges in the South. 1646 Russell Avenue, Jefferson City (865) 471-2000

2 Located on 1,435 acres, Panther Creek State Park is a pristine wildlife preserve. A scenic overlook (36.126817, -83.244517) at the park's highest point gives a beautiful view of Cherokee Lake. (36.123259, -83.244517) 2010 Panther Creek Rd., Morristown (423) 587-7046 or 888-TN-PARKS

3 Housed in a 19th Century Victorian Schoolhouse, the Rose Center features concerts, a local history museum with records of a flight that predates the Wright Brothers, and a permanent display detailing the history of the Civil War in Morristown and surrounding areas. (36.213348, -83.297536) 442 W. Second North St., Morristown (423) 581-4330

Downtown Morristown's most unique feature is the 1969 overhead sidewalk system offering visitors "two Main Streets in one." Featuring an eclectic mix of specialty shops, antique stores and restaurants, you won't want to miss the monthly Main Street Festival from April - September. (36.212822, -83.293948) Main Street, Morristown (423) 581-3280

Crockett Tavern Museum, a replica of the boyhood home of Tennessee folk hero Davy Crockett, contains artifacts from Davy's childhood and tells the story of this legendary figure in American history. (Open May-October.) (36.220942, -83.268553) 2002 Morningside Dr., Morristown (423) 587-9900

Morristown Area Chamber of Commerce

4 Cherokee Lake and Cherokee Park is surrounded by gentle rolling hills and the Clinch Mountain Range to the north. One of the oldest of the Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA) reservoirs, Cherokee Lake is 59 miles long, has 463 miles of shoreline and covers 30,300 acres at full pool. A beautiful 178-acre public park on the banks of Cherokee Lake, Cherokee Park offers stunning scenery and views of the lake and mountains. (36.261905, -83.276244) 3075 Floyd Hall Dr., Morristown (423) 586-5232

5 CW Bethesda Church & Cemetery features a kiosk detailing Civil War and local history, a majestic stone archway, graves dating from the 1700s and a church that was used as a hospital during the Civil War. During area battles in 1864, the eastern wall of the church was hit by a cannonball; the patched area is still visible from the outside. (36.250675, -83.220287) 4990 Bethesda Rd., Morristown (423) 586-6382

CW Longstreet's Billet was occupied during the winter of 1863-64 by Confederate General James Longstreet. It is currently being restored to serve as a museum. (36.257188, -83.195694) 5915 E. Andrew Johnson Hwy., Morristown (423) 586-6382

6 Over 600 exotic animals from around the world call Briarwood Ranch Safari their home. Enjoy the free petting zoo and picnic area, then drive your motorcycle (if you dare!) on the four-mile safari trail. Riding in the wagon is always an option if your bike is sensitive to hoof marks. (N 36° 6' 36.6" / W 83° 9' 9.8") 255 Briar Thicket Rd., Bybee (423) 623-2008

Coke County Partnership Visitor Center

7 The Creekwalk Inn at Whisperwood Farm is a bed and breakfast offering seven rooms, each preserving the rustic charm of a log home. (35515368N 831343.87W) 164 Middle Creek Rd., Cosby (423) 487-4000 or (800) 962-2246

8 Find Mexican and American food combined with Bluegrass music at the brightly painted Front Porch Mexican Restaurant. (35485084N 831425.26W) 2912 Cosby Hwy., Cosby (423) 487-2875

9 Stop for a home-grown snack at Carver's Apple Orchard. The restaurant offers country cookin', cider, fritters and yummy apple pies. Don't miss the candy kitchen and local crafts. (35501251N 831355.34W) 3462 Cosby Hwy., Cosby (423) 487-2710

Housed in a charming log cabin, Holloway's Quilts offers quilts, fabrics and patterns. (35 49 05.77 N 83 14 45.81 W) 3892 Cosby Hwy., Cosby (423) 487-3866

Smoky Mountain Visitors Center

10 A motorcyclist's dream ride, the Foothills Parkway has switchbacks and scenic overlooks to spare. I-40, Exit 442

11 Historic Dandridge's welcoming downtown streets are lined with restaurants and shops. Try a burger and shake at Tinsley-Bible Drugstore and for the best BBQ around, you can't miss Smoky's Steak and BBQ. For a lakefront meal, Angelos At The Point offers exceptional views of Douglas Lake. (N36 01 00/ W83 44 54) 131 E. Main Street, Dandridge (865) 397-7420

Dandridge Welcome Center

RECOMMENDED SIDE TRIPS

To the South of Newport lie Cherokee National Forest and Martha Sunquist State Forest, the site of Christy Mission, from the famous book, plays and TV series about a young woman committed to educating the mountain people of the region.

Nestled at the foot of English Mountain, just a few miles off the trail and along a picturesque country drive, the Bush Brothers Visitor Center is fun for the whole family and a trip back in time; complete with a turn of the century general store, museum, café and theatre. 3901 Hwy. 411, Chestnut Hill (865) 509-3485

The Bobarosa Saloon is a place to relax along the river with a cold drink and a warm atmosphere any day of the week. But especially on weekends, when it attracts hundreds of bikers. Live music, pool tables, darts, video gaming, overnight rentals, RV and tent camping, an apparel and leather store, and a motorcycle repair/maintenance shop make it a stop off the trail you won't want to miss. 2299 E. Hwy. 25/70, Del Rio (423) 613-9726

Class three and four rapids await you in Hartford – home to a dozen White Water Rafting Outfitters. (35483773N 83083624W) I-40, Exit 447, Hartford Rd., Hartford

Great Smoky Mountains National Park

There are 384 miles of road to choose from when exploring the National Park that offer panoramic vistas, mountain streams, historic buildings and majestic forests. Inexpensive booklets are available to serve as your personal tour guides along many park roads.